The following is a statement of the designations and the powers, privileges and rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof in respect of each class of capital stock of the Corporation.

A. COMMON STOCK.

1. General. The voting, dividend and liquidation rights of the holders of the Common Stock are subject to and qualified by the rights of the holders of the Preferred Stock as may be designated by the Board of Directors upon any issuance of the Preferred Stock of any series.

2. Voting. The holders of the Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held at all meetings of stockholders (and actions by written consent of the stockholders in lieu of meetings) with respect to any and all matters presented to the stockholders of the Corporation for their action or consideration. There shall be no cumulative voting.

3. Number of Shares. Subject to any other votes required as set forth herein, the number of authorized shares of Common Stock may be increased or decreased (but not below the number of shares thereof then outstanding) by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the stock of the Corporation entitled to vote, irrespective of the provisions of Section 242(b)(2) of the General Corporation Law of Delaware.

4. Dividends. Dividends may be declared and paid on the Common Stock from funds lawfully available therefor if, as and when determined by the Board of Directors and subject to any preferential dividend rights of any then outstanding Preferred Stock.

5. Liquidation. Upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary (a "Liquidation Event"), or upon an event described in Section B.2(k) of this Article Fourth that is deemed to be a Liquidation Event, the holders of Common Stock will be entitled to receive all assets of the Corporation available for distribution to its stockholders, subject to any preferential rights of any then outstanding Preferred Stock.

B. PREFERRED STOCK.

1. Dividends. The holders of the Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, in preference to the holders of the Junior Stock (as defined in Section B.2(a) below), out of funds legally available therefor, if, as and when declared by the Corporation's Board of Directors, cash dividends annually at a rate equal to the greater of (i) eight percent (8.0%) per annum multiplied by the original purchase price per share paid to the Corporation by the initial holder of such share, and (ii) the dividends payable on the Common Stock into which such shares of Preferred Stock would have been converted, had such shares of Preferred Stock been converted into shares of Common Stock on the record date for the dividend (the "Dividend Rate"). Such dividends shall not be cumulative. Unless all declared dividends on the Preferred Stock shall have been paid or a sum sufficient for the payment thereof set apart, no dividend shall be paid or declared, and no distribution shall be made, on any Junior Stock and no redemption of any Junior Stock shall occur. Except as otherwise provided herein, if at any time the Corporation pays less than the total amount of dividends then declared but unpaid with respect to the Preferred Stock, such payment shall be distributed ratably among the holders of Preferred Stock in proportion to the payment each such holder would receive if the full amount of such dividend were paid. Upon any conversion of shares of Preferred Stock, all rights to such preferential dividends (whether or not declared) on such shares shall terminate.

The original purchase price per share for each series of Preferred Stock for the purpose of calculating dividends, and for all other purposes of this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, is as follows (with all per share figures subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of any stock dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization affecting such shares): $0.75 per share for the Series A Preferred Stock (the "Series A Original Purchase Price"), $1.175 per share for the Series B Preferred Stock (the "Series B Original Purchase Price"), $1.38 per share for the Series B-1 Preferred Stock (the "Series B-1 Original Purchase Price"), $1.8905 per share for the Series C Preferred Stock (the "Series C Original Purchase Price"), $2.9815 per share for the Series D Preferred Stock (the "Series D Original Purchase Price"), $2.4854 per share for the Series E Preferred Stock (the "Series E Original Purchase Price"), $1.5855 per share for the Series F Preferred Stock (the "Series F Original Purchase Price"), $1.5855 per share for the Series G Preferred Stock (the "Series G Original Purchase Price") and $1.5855 per share for the Series H Preferred Stock (the "Series H Original Purchase Price").

2. Distributions to Preferred Stockholders upon a Liquidation Event.

(b) Upon a Liquidation Event, the holders of the Series H Preferred Stock shall receive, prior and in preference to any distribution of any assets or funds of the Corporation legally available for distribution to the holders of any other capital stock of the Corporation by reason of their ownership of such stock, an amount per share equal to the sum of (i) three (3) times the Series H Original Purchase Price for each share of Series H Preferred Stock then held by them, plus (ii) any declared but unpaid dividends on such shares held by them (the “Series H Initial Liquidation Amount”), provided that if the assets and funds legally available for distribution are insufficient to pay the Series H Initial Liquidation Amount for each outstanding share of Series H Preferred Stock, then the lesser amount that is available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Series H Preferred Stock pro rata. (e) After the distributions set forth in Sections B.2(b), B.2(c) and B.2(d) above have been made, to the extent there are remaining assets and/or funds of the Corporation legally available for distribution to the Corporation's stockholders, then the holders of the Series F Preferred Stock shall receive, prior and in preference to any further distribution of any assets or funds of the Corporation available for distribution to the holders of any other capital stock of the Corporation by reason of their ownership of such stock, an amount per share equal to the sum of (i) the Series F Original Purchase Price for each share of Series F Preferred Stock then held by them, plus (ii) any declared but unpaid dividends on such shares held by them (the "Series F Liquidation Amount"), provided that if the assets and funds legally available for distribution are insufficient to pay the Series F Liquidation Amount for each outstanding share of Series F Preferred Stock, then the lesser amount that is available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Series F Preferred Stock pro rata.

(f) After the distributions set forth in Sections B.2(b), B.2(c), B.2(d) and B.2(e) above have been made, to the extent there are remaining assets and/or funds of the Corporation legally available for distribution to the Corporation's stockholders, the holders of the Series H Preferred Stock shall receive, prior and in preference to any distribution of any assets or funds of the Corporation legally available for distribution to the holders of any other capital stock of the Corporation by reason of their ownership of such stock, an amount per share equal to $0.0307 (as appropriately adjusted for stock splits and the like) for an aggregate amount to all holders of Series H Preferred Stock equal to $1,276,250.22 (the "Series H Third Catch-Up Liquidation Amount" and, together with the Series H Initial Liquidation Amount, the Series H First Catch-Up Liquidation Amount and the Series H Second Catch-Up Liquidation Amount, the "Series H Liquidation Amount"), provided that if the assets and funds legally available for distribution are insufficient to pay such amount for each outstanding share of Series H Preferred Stock, then the lesser amount that is available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Series H Preferred Stock pro rata.

(g) After the distributions set forth in Sections B.2(b), B.2(c), B.2(d), B.2(e) and B.2(f) above have been made, to the extent there are remaining assets and/or funds of the Corporation legally available for distribution to the Corporation's stockholders, then the holders of Series A Preferred Stock, the Series B Preferred Stock, the Series B-1 Preferred Stock, the Series C Preferred Stock, the Series D Preferred Stock and the Series E Preferred Stock shall receive on a pro rata basis, prior and in preference to any further distribution of any assets or funds of the Corporation available for distribution to the holders of any other capital stock of the Corporation by reason of their ownership of such stock, an amount equal to (i) for the holders of Series A Preferred Stock, the Series A Original Purchase Price for each share of Series A Preferred Stock then held by them, plus any declared but unpaid dividends on such shares held by them (the "Series A Liquidation Amount"), (ii) for the holders of Series B Preferred Stock, the Series B Original Purchase Price for each share of Series B Preferred Stock then held by them, plus any declared but unpaid dividends on such shares held by them (the "Series B Liquidation Amount"), (iii) for the holders of Series B-1 Preferred Stock, the Series B-1 Original Purchase Price for each share of Series B-1 Preferred Stock then held by them, plus any declared but unpaid dividends on such shares held by them (the "Series B-1 Liquidation Amount"), (iv) for the holders of Series C Preferred Stock, the Series C Original Purchase Price for each share of Series C Preferred Stock then held by them, plus any declared but unpaid dividends on such shares held by them (the "Series C Liquidation Amount"), (v) for the holders of Series D

Preferred Stock, the Series D Original Purchase Price for each share of Series D Preferred Stock then held by them, plus any declared but unpaid dividends on such shares held by them (the “Series D Liquidation Amount”) and (vi) for the holders of Series E Preferred Stock, the Series E Original Purchase Price for each share of Series E Preferred Stock then held by them, plus any declared but unpaid dividends on such shares held by them (the “Series E Liquidation Amount”), provided that if the assets and funds legally available for distribution among the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock, the Series B Preferred Stock, the Series B-1 Preferred Stock, the Series C Preferred Stock, the Series D Preferred Stock and the Series E Preferred Stock are insufficient to pay those holders their full preferential amounts, then the lesser amount that is available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock, the Series B Preferred Stock, the Series B-1 Preferred Stock, the Series C Preferred Stock, the Series D Preferred Stock and the Series E Preferred Stock ratably in proportion to the full preferential amounts each holder would be entitled to receive under this Section B.2(g).

(h) After the distributions set forth in Sections B.2(b), B.2(c), B.2(d), B.2(e), B.2(f) and B.2(g) above have been made, to the extent there are remaining assets and/or funds of the Corporation legally available for distribution to the Corporation’s stockholders, they shall be distributed ratably among the holders of shares of Preferred Stock, Common Stock and any other class or series of stock entitled to participate in liquidation distributions with the holders of Common Stock, in such a manner as if all the shares of Preferred Stock shall have been converted into Common Stock at the then applicable Conversion Price for each such series of Preferred Stock in accordance with this Amended and Restated Certificate, provided that the holders of Series A Preferred Stock shall collectively receive up to a maximum amount per share (including all amounts distributed pursuant to Section B.2(g) above) equal to two (2) times the Series A Original Purchase Price per share for the Series A Preferred Stock, the holders of Series B Preferred Stock shall collectively receive up to a maximum amount per share (including all amounts distributed pursuant to Section B.2(g) above) equal to two (2) times the Series B Original Purchase Price per share for the Series B Preferred Stock, the holders of Series B-1 Preferred Stock shall collectively receive up to a maximum amount per share (including all amounts distributed pursuant to Section B.2(g) above) equal to two (2) times the Series B-1 Original Purchase Price per share for the Series B-1 Preferred Stock, the holders of Series C Preferred Stock shall collectively receive up to a maximum amount per share (including all amounts distributed pursuant to Section B.2(g) above) equal to two (2) times the Series C Original Purchase Price per share for the Series C Preferred Stock, the holders of Series D Preferred Stock shall collectively receive up to a maximum amount per share (including all amounts distributed pursuant to Section B.2(g) above) equal to two (2) times the Series D Original Purchase Price per share for the Series D Preferred Stock, the holders of Series E Preferred Stock shall collectively receive up to a maximum amount per share (including all amounts distributed pursuant to Section B.2(g) above) equal to two (2) times the Series E Original Purchase Price per share for the Series E Preferred Stock, the holders of Series F Preferred Stock shall collectively receive up to a maximum amount per share (including all amounts distributed pursuant to Section B.2(e) above) equal to two (2) times the Series F Original Purchase Price per share for the Series F Preferred Stock, the holders of Series G Preferred Stock shall collectively receive up to a maximum amount per share (including all amounts distributed pursuant to Section B.2(c) above) equal to five (5) times the Series G Original Purchase Price per share for the Series G Preferred Stock, the holders of Series H Preferred Stock shall collectively receive up to a maximum amount per share (including all amounts distributed pursuant to Sections B.2(b), B.2(d) and B.2(f) above) equal to five (5) times the Series H Original Purchase Price per share for the Series H Preferred Stock, provided that when calculating the amounts received pursuant to Sections B.2(b), B.2(c), B.2(d), B.2(e), B.2(f) and B.2(g) for purposes of this Section B.2(h), the amount of any declared and unpaid dividends shall be disregarded.

(i) After the distributions set forth in Sections B.2(b), B.2(c), B.2(d), B.2(e), B.2(f), B.2(g) and B.2(h) above have been made, to the extent there are remaining assets and/or funds of the Corporation legally available for distribution to the Corporation's stockholders, they shall be distributed among the holders of shares of Common Stock and any other class or series of stock (excluding the Preferred Stock) entitled to participate in liquidation distributions with the holders of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares of Common Stock held by each (assuming conversion into Common Stock of all such shares of any other class or series of stock).

(j) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections B.2(a) through (i) of this Article Fourth, in the event the amount distributable to the Corporation's stockholders in connection with a Liquidation Event is payable in installments that are not subject to the satisfaction of any contingencies, which distributions shall be covered by Section B.2(l) of this Article Fourth, then prior to the time a distribution (the "Current Distribution") is to be made, the total amount available for the Current Distribution will be cumulated with all prior distributions made in connection with the Liquidation Event, and a calculation of the amount distributable to each stockholder will be made as if the total cumulative amount had been paid in a single initial distribution, assuming for purposes of such calculation that each series of Preferred Stock elected to convert such series of Preferred Stock to Common Stock in a manner that would yield such series of Preferred Stock the largest distribution. The amount allocated to each stockholder in such calculation is called the stockholder's "Cumulative Distribution." In the Current Distribution, each stockholder will receive an amount such that when the portion of the Current Distribution distributed to such stockholder is added to all prior distributions to such stockholder in connection with the Liquidation Event, such stockholder will have received its Cumulative Distribution.

(k) In the event of any merger or consolidation of the Corporation into or with another corporation (except one in which the holders of capital stock of the Corporation immediately prior to such merger or consolidation continue to hold at least seventy percent (70.0%) by voting power of the capital stock of the surviving corporation), the sale of all of the outstanding capital stock of the Corporation to a single entity or group of related entities in one transaction or a series of transactions or the sale of all or substantially all the assets of the Corporation, such merger, consolidation, stock sale or asset sale shall be deemed to be a Liquidation Event and all consideration payable to the stockholders of the Corporation (in case of a merger, consolidation or stock sale) or all consideration payable to the Corporation, together with all other available assets of the Corporation (in case of an asset sale), shall be distributed to the holders of capital stock of the Corporation in accordance with Sections B.2(a) through (i) of this Article Fourth, unless (i) the holders of at least fifty percent (50.0%) of the then outstanding shares of Preferred Stock elect not to treat such event as a Liquidation Event and (ii) the holders of a majority of the Series H Preferred Stock elect not to treat such event as a Liquidation Event, in each case, by giving written notice thereof to the Corporation at least three (3) days before the effective date of such event. The Corporation shall promptly provide to the holders of shares of Preferred Stock such information concerning the terms of such merger, consolidation, stock sale or asset sale and the value of the assets of the Corporation as may reasonably be requested by the holders of Preferred Stock in order to assist them in determining whether to make such an election. The Corporation shall use its best efforts to ensure that the agreement or plan of merger or consolidation applies a rate at which the shares of capital stock of the Corporation are converted into or exchanged for cash, new securities or other property to give effect to Sections B.2(a) through (i) of this Article Fourth. In any Liquidation Event, if the proceeds received by the Corporation or its stockholders are comprised of any combination of cash, promissory notes, securities and/or other property (each, a “Form of Proceeds”), then pro rata distributions of each Form of Proceeds shall be made in such priority and amounts as required to satisfy the distribution requirements specified in Section B.2(a) through (i) of this Article Fourth. The amount deemed distributed to the holders of Preferred Stock upon any such merger or consolidation shall be the cash or the value of the property, rights or securities distributed to such holders by the acquiring person, firm or other entity. The value of such property, rights or other securities shall be determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Corporation and the holders of a majority of the Preferred Stock, provided that if the property is securities that are traded on a securities exchange, the Nasdaq Stock Market or over-the-counter, the value of the securities shall be deemed to be the average of the closing prices (with respect to securities listed on a securities exchange or the Nasdaq Stock Market) or the closing bid and ask prices (with respect to securities listed over-the-counter) of the securities on such exchange or over-the-counter over the ten (10) day period ending three (3) days prior to the closing of the transaction which will constitute a liquidation of the Corporation.

(l) In a Liquidation Event, if any portion of the consideration payable to the stockholders of the Corporation is payable only upon satisfaction of contingencies (the “Additional Consideration”), the applicable sale agreement shall provide that (a) the portion of such consideration that is not Additional Consideration (such portion, the “Initial Consideration”) shall be allocated among the holders of capital stock of the Corporation in accordance with the above liquidation provisions as if the Initial Consideration were the only consideration payable in connection with such Liquidation Event; and (b) any Additional Consideration which becomes payable to the stockholders of the Corporation upon satisfaction of such contingencies shall be allocated among the holders of capital stock of the Corporation in accordance with the above liquidation provisions after taking into account the previous payment of the Initial Consideration as part of the same transaction. Consideration placed into escrow or retained as holdback to be available for satisfaction of indemnification or similar obligations in connection with such Liquidation Event shall be deemed to be Additional Consideration.

(m) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if a share of Series A Preferred Stock, Series B Preferred Stock, Series B-1 Preferred Stock, Series C Preferred Stock, Series D Preferred Stock, Series E Preferred Stock, Series F Preferred Stock, Series G Preferred Stock or Series H Preferred Stock would receive a greater amount per share if all such shares of such Series A Preferred Stock, Series B Preferred Stock, Series B-1 Preferred Stock, Series C Preferred Stock, Series D Preferred Stock, Series E Preferred Stock, Series F Preferred Stock, Series G Preferred Stock or Series H Preferred Stock, respectively and as applicable, had been converted into Common Stock immediately prior to the Liquidation Event, then each such share of such respective and applicable series of Preferred Stock shall automatically be paid on an as-converted to Common Stock basis in lieu of receiving the lesser liquidation amounts set forth above.

3. Voting.

(a) General. Each holder of outstanding shares of Preferred Stock shall be entitled to the number of votes equal to the number of whole shares of Common Stock into which the shares of Preferred Stock held by such holder are then convertible (as adjusted from time to time pursuant to Section B.4 of this Article Fourth), at each meeting of stockholders of the Corporation (and actions by written consent of the stockholders in lieu of meetings) with respect to any and all matters presented to the stockholders of the Corporation for their action or consideration. There shall be no cumulative voting. Except as provided by law, by the provisions of Section B.9(a)(v) hereof or by the provisions establishing any other series of preferred stock, holders of Preferred Stock and of any other outstanding series of preferred stock shall vote together with the holders of Common Stock as a single class.

(b) Size of Board of Directors. Unless increased or decreased in accordance with Section B.7(i) hereof, the Board of Directors shall consist of nine (9) members, who shall be elected as follows:

(i) KKR Athena Holdings L.P. ("KKR") shall be entitled to elect two (2) members of the Board of Directors (the "KKR Directors").

(ii) HealthCare Royalty Partners II, L.P. ("HCRP") shall be entitled to elect two (2) members of the Board of Directors (the "HCRP Directors").

(iii) The holders of a majority of the Series A Preferred Stock, the Series B Preferred Stock, the Series B-1 Preferred Stock, the Series C Preferred Stock, the Series D Preferred Stock, the Series E Preferred Stock, Series F Preferred Stock and Series G Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class, shall be entitled to elect three (3) members of the Board of Directors.

(iv) The holders of a majority of the Common Stock, voting as a single class, shall be entitled to elect one (1) member of the Board of Directors.

(v) The holders of a majority of the Common Stock and the Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class, shall be entitled to elect one (1) member of the Board of Directors.

(c) Voting. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws, each director is entitled to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof, provided, however, that (i) the KKR Directors shall be entitled, collectively, to two (2) votes as directors of the Corporation, regardless of the number of KKR Directors then designated, with such two (2) votes to be allocated among the KKR Directors then designated such that each KKR Director shall have a number of votes equal to (A) the total number of votes to be allocated among such KKR Directors divided by (B) the number of KKR Directors then designated (for example, if only one KKR Director is then designated, such director would be entitled to two (2) votes) and (ii) the HCRP Directors shall be entitled, collectively, to two (2) votes as directors of the Corporation, regardless of the number of HCRP Directors then designated, with such two (2) votes to be allocated among the HCRP Directors then designated such that each HCRP Director shall have a number of votes equal to (A) the total number of votes to be allocated among such HCRP Directors divided by (B) the number of HCRP Directors then designated (for example, if only one HCRP Director is then designated, such director would be entitled to two (2) votes). A director's voting power for any action taken by a committee of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, and by any subcommittee of a committee of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, shall be the same as such director's voting power with respect to action taken by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

4. Optional Conversion.

(a) Right to Convert. After the first issuance of a share of Series H Preferred Stock, each share of Preferred Stock shall be convertible, at the option of the holder thereof, at any time and from time to time, and without the payment of additional consideration by the holder thereof, into such number of fully paid and nonassessable shares of Common Stock as is determined by dividing the Original Purchase Price for the applicable series of Preferred Stock by its Conversion Price (as defined below) in effect at the time of conversion. The initial "Conversion Price" shall be the Series A Original Purchase Price for the Series A Preferred Stock, the Series B Original Purchase Price for the Series B Preferred Stock, the Series B-1 Original Purchase Price for the Series B-1 Preferred Stock, the Series C Original Purchase Price for the Series C Preferred Stock, the Series D Original Purchase Price for the Series D Preferred Stock, the Series E Original Purchase Price for the Series E Preferred Stock, the Series F Original Purchase Price for the Series F Preferred Stock, the Series G Original Purchase Price for the Series G Preferred Stock and the Series H Original Purchase Price for the Series H Preferred Stock.

In the event of a liquidation of the Corporation, the conversion rights shall terminate at the close of business on the first (1st) full day immediately preceding the date fixed for the payment of any amounts distributable on liquidation to the holders of Preferred Stock.

(b) Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of Common Stock shall be issued upon conversion of the Preferred Stock. In lieu of any fractional shares to which the holder would otherwise be entitled, the Corporation shall pay to such holder an amount equal to such fraction multiplied by the fair market value of the Common Stock as determined in good faith by the Corporation's Board of Directors.

(c) Mechanics of Conversion.

(i) If a holder of Preferred Stock elects to convert shares of Preferred Stock into shares of Common Stock pursuant to Section B.4(a) above, such holder shall surrender the certificate or certificates for such shares of Preferred Stock at the principal office of the Corporation together with written notice that such holder elects to convert all or any number of the shares of the Preferred Stock represented by such certificate or certificates. Such notice shall state such holder's name or the names of the nominees in which such holder wishes the certificate or certificates for shares of Common Stock to be issued and the effective date of the conversion (the “Conversion Date”), which may be any date within the sixty (60) day period following the date on which such notice is received by the Corporation. If required by the Corporation, certificates surrendered for conversion shall be endorsed or accompanied by a written instrument or instruments of transfer, in form satisfactory to the Corporation, duly executed by the registered holder or such holder’s attorney duly authorized in writing. The converting holder shall be deemed to be the record holder of the resulting shares of Common Stock on the Conversion Date and the Corporation shall, as soon as practicable after the Conversion Date (and in any event within fifteen (15) business days), issue and deliver at such office of such holder of Preferred Stock, or to such holder’s nominees, a certificate or certificates for the number of shares of Common Stock to which such holder shall be entitled, together with payment in lieu of any fraction of a share pursuant to Section B.4(b) above.

(ii) The Corporation shall at all times when the Preferred Stock shall be outstanding, reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued stock, for the purpose of effecting the conversion of the Preferred Stock, such number of its duly authorized shares of Common Stock as shall from time to time be sufficient to effect the conversion of all outstanding Preferred Stock. Before taking any action which would cause an adjustment reducing the Conversion Price below the then par value of the shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Preferred Stock, the Corporation will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, take any corporate action which may, in the opinion of its counsel, be necessary in order that the Corporation may validly and legally issue fully paid and nonassessable shares of Common Stock at such adjusted Conversion Price.

(iii) Upon any such conversion, no adjustment to the Conversion Price shall be made for any declared but unpaid dividends on the Preferred Stock surrendered for conversion or on the Common Stock delivered upon conversion.

(iv) On the Conversion Date, all shares of Preferred Stock which shall have been surrendered for conversion as herein provided shall no longer be deemed to be outstanding and all rights with respect to such shares, including the rights, if any, to receive notices and to vote, shall immediately cease and terminate, except only the right of the holders thereof to receive shares of Common Stock in exchange therefor and payment of any dividends declared but unpaid thereon. Any shares of Preferred Stock so converted shall be retired and cancelled and shall not be reissued, and the Corporation (without the need for stockholder action) may from thereafter take such appropriate action as may be necessary to reduce the authorized Preferred Stock accordingly.

(v) The Corporation shall pay any and all issue and other taxes (other than taxes based on income) that may be payable in respect of any issuance or delivery of shares of Common Stock upon conversion of shares of Preferred Stock pursuant to this Section B.4. The Corporation shall not, however, be required to pay any tax which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issuance and delivery of shares of Common Stock in a name other than that in which the shares of Preferred Stock so converted were registered, and no such issuance or delivery shall be made unless and until the person or entity requesting such issuance has paid to the Corporation the amount of any such tax or has established, to the satisfaction of the Corporation, that such tax has been paid.

(d) Adjustment for Dilution. If at any time after the Filing Date, the Corporation shall issue any shares of Common Stock, or shall issue any Common Stock Equivalents (as hereinafter defined), for a consideration per share less than the Conversion Price for any series of Preferred Stock in effect immediately prior to the issuance of such Common Stock or Common Stock Equivalents, the Conversion Price of such series of Preferred Stock in effect immediately prior to each such issuance shall be decreased to the amount determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Conversion Price} = \frac{(P1 \times Q1) + (P2 \times Q2)}{Q1 + Q2}$$

For purposes of the foregoing formula:

- P1 = Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such issuance.
- Q1 = Number of shares of Common Stock deemed outstanding (in accordance with subparagraph (vi) below) immediately prior to such issuance.
- P2 = Average price per share received by the Corporation upon such issuance (determined in accordance with subparagraphs (iii) and (vi) below).
- Q2 = Number of shares of Common Stock issued or sold, or deemed to have been issued or sold (in accordance with subparagraph (vi) below) upon such issuance.

For purposes of any adjustment of the Conversion Price pursuant to this Section B.4(d), the following provisions shall be applicable:

(i) “Common Stock Equivalents” means any stock or security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Common Stock, including the Preferred Stock, and any right, warrant or option to acquire Common Stock or any such convertible, exercisable or exchangeable security, provided, that the term Common Stock Equivalents shall not include any rights, warrants or options to acquire Common Stock where the exercise or “strike” price, or other amount payable in connection with the exercise or exchange of such security, exceeds the fair market value of the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such exercise.

(ii) The per share consideration for the sale or issuance of Common Stock shall be the price per share received by the Corporation before payment of commissions, discounts and other expenses. The value of any non-cash consideration received or receivable upon the sale or issuance of Common Stock or Common Stock Equivalents shall be determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

(iii) In the case of the sale or issuance of Common Stock Equivalents, the per share consideration shall be determined by dividing the maximum number of shares of Common Stock issuable with respect to such Common Stock Equivalents into the aggregate consideration received by the Corporation upon the sale or issuance of such Common Stock Equivalents plus the minimum aggregate amount of any additional consideration receivable by the Corporation upon the conversion or exercise of such Common Stock Equivalents. For the purpose of calculation, such maximum number of shares shall be assumed to be issued on the earlier of the payment date or record date for a distribution of such Common Stock Equivalents.

(iv) If any Common Stock Equivalents included in adjustments under this Section B.4(d) expire or terminate without the Common Stock to which they related having been issued, the Conversion Price shall be readjusted to eliminate the effect of the assumed issuance of such Common Stock. If any Common Stock Equivalents by their terms provide for subsequent increases in the additional consideration payable for the related Common Stock or for subsequent decreases in the number of shares of Common Stock obtainable, then, upon any such increase or decrease, the Conversion Price shall be appropriately readjusted to the extent such Common Stock Equivalents have not then expired or been exercised or converted. The aggregate increase in the Conversion Price caused by all such readjustments shall not exceed the decrease in Conversion Price made upon the issuance of the Common Stock Equivalents to which such readjustments relate. If any Common Stock Equivalents by their terms provide for subsequent decreases in the additional consideration payable for the related Common Stock or for subsequent increases in the number of shares of Common Stock obtainable, then, upon any such decrease or increase, the Conversion Price shall be appropriately adjusted to the extent such Common Stock Equivalents have not then expired or been exercised or converted.

(v) In case the Corporation shall declare a dividend or make any other distribution upon any stock of the Corporation payable in Common Stock or Common Stock Equivalents, such Common Stock or Common Stock Equivalents shall be deemed to have been issued or sold without consideration as of the earlier of the related record or payment date.

(vi) The number of shares of Common Stock outstanding at any point in time shall include all shares then issuable or to become issuable pursuant to any Common Stock Equivalent then issued or to be issued.

(vii) The following issuances of Common Stock or Common Stock Equivalents, which would otherwise trigger an adjustment of the Conversion Price under this Section B.4(d), will not trigger such an adjustment: (1) any dividend or distribution on any Preferred Stock; (2) any stock for which adjustment of the Conversion Price is made pursuant to Section B.4(c) above or Sections B.4(f), B.4(g) or B.4(h) below; (3) securities offered by the Corporation to the public in a Qualified Public Offering (as defined in Section B.5(a) below); (4) securities reissued to directors, employees, or consultants following the Corporation's acquisition of such securities pursuant to restricted stock arrangements with individuals who have terminated their relationship with the Corporation or shares subject to options granted to individuals who have terminated their relationship with the Corporation which are not exercised; (5) shares of Common Stock, or securities convertible into or exercisable for such shares, issued pursuant to an agreement solely to acquire or license technology (including without limitation sponsored research) by the Corporation or to a collaborative partner of the Corporation in connection with a corporate partnering transaction, if such agreement is approved by the Board of Directors; (6) securities issued pursuant to any right or agreement to the extent to which an adjustment was previously made to the Conversion Price established by this Section B.4 with respect to the initial sale or grant by the Corporation of such right or agreement; (7) all securities issued or issuable pursuant to warrants or options outstanding on the Filing Date; (8) shares of Common Stock ("Option Shares") issued or issuable upon exercise of stock options ("Options") granted to directors, officers, employees and consultants of the Corporation, which are approved by a majority of the non-employee members of the Board of Directors, under either the Corporation's Amended and Restated 2002 Incentive and Non-Incentive Stock Option Plan or the Corporation's 2011 Stock Incentive Plan (collectively, the "Plans") approved by the Board of Directors and adopted by the stockholders, whether previously existing or granted after the Filing Date, each of which Options has a per share exercise price that is not less than the per share fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of the Option grant, and which number of Option Shares does not exceed 12,484,416; (9) securities issued in connection with any acquisition approved by a majority of the Board of Directors and by not less than eighty (80.0%) of the outstanding shares of Series H Preferred Stock, voting as a separate class, as required by Section 9(a)(vii) of this Article Fourth and which issuance of securities is approved by not less than fifty percent (50.0%) of the outstanding shares of (x) Series H Preferred Stock, voting as a separate class, as required by Section 9(b)(ii) of this Article Fourth and (y) Preferred Stock voting together as a single class as required by Section 7(b) of this Article Fourth; (10) up to 5,628,902 shares of Series G Preferred Stock and up to 41,627,237 shares of Series H Preferred Stock issued pursuant to the Series G and Series H Convertible Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement, dated September 8, 2016 (it being understood that the Series C Stock Split, the Series D Stock Split and the Series E Stock Split and the corresponding reduction in the Series C Original Purchase Price, Series D Original Purchase Price and Series E Original Purchase Price and the respective Conversion Price for each such series from the prices that were in effect prior to the filing of this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation reflect the anti-dilution adjustment with respect to the issuance of Series G Preferred Stock and Series H Preferred Stock, which are being made in lieu of, and have the same economic effect as, a reduction in the Conversion Price for each such series that would otherwise have served as the anti-dilution adjustment); (11) up to 9,854,935 shares of Series F Preferred Stock (and only for up to 9,854,935 shares of Series F Preferred Stock) issuable upon conversion of that certain Series F Preferred Stock Purchase Warrant, issued on August 29, 2014 (the "Warrant") (it being understood that the Series C Stock Split, Series D Stock Split and Series E Stock Split and the corresponding reduction in the Series C Original Purchase Price, Series D Original Purchase Price and Series E Original Purchase Price and the respective Conversion Price for each such series from the prices that were in effect prior to the filing of this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation reflect the anti-dilution adjustment with respect to the issuance of the Warrant, which are being made in lieu of, and have the same economic effect as, a reduction in the Conversion Price for each such series that would otherwise have served as the anti-dilution adjustment; and (12) Common Stock issued upon conversion of the Preferred Stock.

(e) Adjustment for Stock Splits and Combinations. If the Corporation shall at any time, or from time to time after the Filing Date, effect a subdivision of the outstanding Common Stock, the Conversion Price then in effect immediately before that subdivision shall be proportionately decreased. If the Corporation shall at any time, or from time to time after the Filing Date, effect a subdivision of the Preferred Stock, the Conversion Price with respect to the Preferred Stock then in effect immediately before that subdivision shall be proportionately increased. If the Corporation shall at any time, or from time to time after the Filing Date, combine the outstanding shares of Common Stock, the Conversion Price then in effect immediately before the combination shall be proportionately increased. If the Corporation shall at any time, or from time to time after the Filing Date, combine the outstanding shares of Preferred Stock, the Conversion Price with respect to the Preferred Stock then in effect immediately before the combination shall be proportionately decreased. Any adjustment under this paragraph shall become effective at the close of business on the date the subdivision or combination becomes effective.

(f) Adjustment for Certain Dividends and Distributions. In the event the Corporation at any time, or from time to time after the Filing Date, shall make or issue, or fix a record date for the determination of holders of Common Stock entitled to receive, a dividend or other distribution payable in additional shares of Common Stock, then, and in each such event, the Conversion Price for the Preferred Stock then in effect shall be decreased as of the time of such issuance or, in the event such a record date, shall have been fixed, as of the close of business on such record date, by multiplying the Conversion Price then in effect by a fraction:

(1) the numerator of which shall be the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the time of such issuance or the close of business on such record date, and

(2) the denominator of which shall be the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the time of such issuance or the close of business on such record date plus the number of shares of Common Stock issuable in payment of such dividend or distribution;

provided, however, if such record date shall have been fixed and such dividend is not fully paid or if such distribution is not fully made on the date fixed therefor, the Conversion Price for the Preferred Stock shall be recomputed accordingly as of the close of business on such record date and thereafter the Conversion Price for the Preferred Stock shall be adjusted pursuant to this paragraph as of the time of actual payment of such dividends or distributions; and provided further, however, that no such adjustment shall be made if the holders of Preferred Stock simultaneously receive a dividend or other distribution of shares of Common Stock in a number equal to the number of shares of Common Stock as they would have received if all outstanding shares of Preferred Stock had been converted into Common Stock on the date of such event.

(g) Adjustments for Other Dividends Distributions. In the event the Corporation at any time, or from time to time after the Filing Date, shall make or issue or fix a record date for the determination of holders of Common Stock entitled to receive, a dividend or other distribution payable in securities of the Corporation other than shares of Common Stock, then, and in each such event, provision shall be made so that the holders of the Preferred Stock shall receive upon conversion thereof, in addition to the number of shares of Common Stock receivable thereupon, the amount of securities of the Corporation that they would have received had the Preferred Stock been converted into Common Stock on the date of such event and had they thereafter, during the period from the date of such event to, and including, the conversion date, retained such securities receivable by them as aforesaid during such period, giving application to all adjustments called for during such period under this paragraph with respect to the rights of the holders of the Preferred Stock; provided, however, that no such adjustment shall be made if the holders of Preferred Stock simultaneously receive a dividend or other distribution of such securities in an amount equal to the amount of such securities as they would have received if all outstanding shares of Preferred Stock had been converted into Common Stock on the date of such event.

(h) Adjustment for Reclassification, Exchange or Substitution. If the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Preferred Stock shall be changed into the same or a different number of shares of any class or classes of stock, whether by capital reorganization, reclassification, or otherwise (other than a subdivision or combination of shares or stock dividend provided for above, or a reorganization, merger, consolidation, or sale of assets provided for below), then, and in each such event, the holder of each such share of Preferred Stock shall have the right thereafter to convert such share into the kind and amount of shares of stock and other securities and property receivable upon such reorganization, reclassification, or other change by holders of the number of shares of Common Stock into which such shares of Preferred Stock might have been converted immediately prior to such reorganization, reclassification or change, all subject to further adjustment as provided herein.

(i) No Impairment. Without the requisite consents required under Section B.7, the Corporation will not, by amendment of its Certificate of Incorporation or through any reorganization, transfer of assets, consolidation, merger, dissolution, issue or sale of securities or any other voluntary action, avoid or seek to avoid the observance or performance of any of the terms to be observed or performed hereunder by the Corporation, but will at all times in good faith assist in the carrying out of all the provisions of this Section B.4 and in the taking of all such action as may be necessary or appropriate in order to protect the rights of the holders of the Preferred Stock pursuant to this Section B.4 against impairment.

(j) Certificate as to Adjustments. Upon the occurrence of each adjustment or readjustment of the Conversion Price pursuant to this Section B.4, the Corporation, at its expense, shall promptly compute such adjustment or readjustment in accordance with the terms hereof and furnish to each holder of Preferred Stock a certificate setting forth such adjustment or readjustment and showing in detail the facts upon which such adjustment or readjustment is based. The Corporation shall, upon the written request at any time (but not more than twice in any twelve (12) month period) of any holder of shares representing at least five percent (5.0%) of the authorized number of shares of Preferred Stock, furnish or cause to be furnished to such holder a similar certificate setting forth (i) such adjustments and readjustments, (ii) the Conversion Price then in effect, and (iii) the number of shares of Common Stock and the amount, if any, of other property which then would be received upon the conversion of Preferred Stock.

5. Mandatory Conversions.

(a) Qualified Public Offering; Affirmative Election.

(i) All outstanding shares of Preferred Stock shall automatically be converted into shares of Common Stock at the then effective Conversion Price (provided, however, that with respect to clauses (A) and (B) below, all outstanding shares of Series G Preferred Stock, and with respect to clauses (A), (B) and (C) below, all outstanding shares of Series H Preferred Stock, shall be automatically converted into shares of Common Stock at a price per share of $0.5285 (as appropriately adjusted for stock splits and the like)) upon the date (the “Mandatory Conversion Date”) that is the earlier to occur of (A) the closing of the sale by the Corporation of shares of Common Stock in a firm commitment, underwritten public offering pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), through a firm acceptable to the Board of Directors of the Corporation resulting in at least $25,000,000 of gross proceeds to the Corporation (before deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and offering expenses) and a pre-money valuation of at least $400,000,000 (a “Qualified Public Offering”), (B) the affirmative election of (1) the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class, and (2) the holders of a majority of the outstanding Series H Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class, in connection with the closing of a firm commitment, underwritten public offering pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act, covering the offer and sale of Common Stock for the account of the Corporation which is not a Qualified Public Offering or (C) the closing of a firm commitment, underwritten public offering pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act of Common Stock of the Corporation pursuant to the registration rights of the Series H Preferred Stock set forth in Section 4.12 of that certain Amended and Restated Investors’ Rights Agreement between the Corporation and certain of its stockholders, dated on or about September 20, 2016, as it may be amended from time to time (the “Investors’ Rights Agreement”). For purposes of the preceding sentence, pre-money valuation shall be calculated by multiplying (x) the per share offering price of the Corporation’s shares in the public offering (before deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and offering expenses), by (y) the total number of shares of Common Stock of the Corporation outstanding immediately before the closing of the public offering, assuming conversion of then outstanding Preferred Stock, and including all other convertible securities and Common Stock issuable upon exercise of all then outstanding options, rights, and warrants.

(ii) All holders of record of shares of Preferred Stock will be given ten (10) business days prior written notice of the Mandatory Conversion Date and the place designated for mandatory conversion of all such shares of Preferred Stock pursuant to this Section B.5(a). Such notice shall be sent both by facsimile transmission (if a facsimile number has been provided and is operational) and by first-class or registered mail, postage prepaid, to each record holder of Preferred Stock at such holder’s facsimile number and address last shown on the records of the Corporation for the Preferred Stock. Upon receipt of such notice, each holder of shares of Preferred Stock shall surrender his, her or its certificate or certificates for all such shares to the Corporation at the place designated in such notice, and shall thereafter receive certificates for the number of shares of Common Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to this Section B.5(a). On the Mandatory Conversion Date, all rights with respect to the Preferred Stock so converted, including the rights, if any, to receive notices and vote, will terminate, except only the rights of the holders thereof, upon surrender of their certificate or certificates therefor, to receive certificates for the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Preferred Stock has been converted and to receive all declared but unpaid dividends. If so required by the Corporation, certificates surrendered for conversion shall be endorsed or accompanied by written instrument or instruments of transfer, in form satisfactory to the Corporation, duly executed by the registered holder or by such holder’s attorney duly authorized in writing. As soon as practicable after the Mandatory Conversion Date and the surrender of the certificate or certificates for Preferred Stock, the Corporation shall cause to be issued and delivered to such holder a certificate or certificates for the number of full shares of Common Stock issuable on such conversion in accordance with the provisions hereof and cash as provided in Section B.4(b) in respect of any fraction of a share of Common Stock otherwise issuable upon such conversion. All declared and unpaid dividends on shares of Preferred Stock shall be paid in cash upon mandatory conversion pursuant to this Section 5(a).

(iii) All certificates evidencing shares of Preferred Stock which are required to be surrendered for conversion in accordance with the provisions hereof shall, from and after the Mandatory Conversion Date, be deemed to have been retired and cancelled and the shares of Preferred Stock represented thereby converted into Common Stock for all purposes, notwithstanding the failure of the holder or holders thereof to surrender such certificates on or prior to such date. The Corporation may thereafter take such appropriate action (without the need for stockholder action) as may be necessary to reduce the authorized Preferred Stock accordingly.

6. Redemption.

(a) In the event of any redemption of any Preferred Stock, for holders of Series H Preferred Stock, the redemption price per share paid to the holders of the Series H Preferred Stock shall be equal to the Series H Liquidation Amount, subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of any stock dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization affecting such shares, plus any dividends declared but unpaid thereon.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no shares of any series of Series A Preferred Stock, Series B Preferred Stock, Series B-1 Preferred Stock, Series C Preferred Stock, Series D Preferred Stock, Series E Preferred Stock, Series F Preferred Stock, or Series G Preferred Stock may be redeemed until the holders of the Series H Preferred Stock have been redeemed in full in accordance with Section B.6(a).

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall the holders of any series of Preferred Stock be entitled to have such shares redeemed by the Corporation in accordance with Section B.6(a) and B.6(b), unless the approval of the holders of Series H Preferred Stock under Section B.9(a)(iv) is obtained.

7. Substantial Transactions Requiring Consent of Holders of Preferred Stock. In addition to Section B.3 and any vote which any series of preferred stock may have under Delaware law, so long as any shares of Preferred Stock shall be outstanding, the Corporation shall not, without first obtaining the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of not less than fifty percent (50.0%) of the outstanding shares of Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class, on an as-converted to Common Stock basis (whether by merger, recapitalization or otherwise):

(a) Authorize any amendment of the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation that would adversely affect the rights of the holders of Preferred Stock;

(b) Authorize, create, or issue any equity securities of the Corporation ranking senior to, or on a parity with, the Preferred Stock;

(c) Declare or pay dividends on or make other distributions with respect to any securities other than Preferred Stock;

(d) Amend, alter or repeal the preferences, special rights or other powers of the Preferred Stock so as to affect adversely the Preferred Stock;

(e) Incur any debt for borrowed money, except for bank loans, loans from institutional or other third party lenders, equipment leases and similar agreements in the ordinary and usual course of business not exceeding $250,000 in the aggregate; and

(f) Make any loans to or investments in, or guaranteeing the indebtedness of any partially owned subsidiaries, joint ventures, or partnerships.

Any such act or transaction entered into without such consent or vote shall be null and void ab initio and of no force or effect.

8. Certain Matters Requiring Consent of Holders of Series C Preferred Stock, Series F Preferred Stock and Series G Preferred Stock.

(a) So long as any shares of Series C Preferred Stock shall be outstanding, the Corporation shall not, without first obtaining the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of not less than seventy percent (70.0%) of the outstanding shares of Series C Preferred Stock, voting as a separate class, reduce (whether by merger, recapitalization or otherwise) the original per share price of Series C Preferred Stock below $1.8905 (except for a reduction in such amount that results from a stock dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization which stock dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization shall only require such approval otherwise necessary at law and under the provisions of this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation other than this Section B.8(a)) and reduce the Series C Distribution Amount that a holder of Series C Preferred Stock is otherwise entitled to under Section B.2 to an amount below what it was immediately prior to such corporate action. Any such act or transaction entered into without such consent or vote shall be null and void ab initio and of no force or effect.

(b) So long as any shares of Series F Preferred Stock shall be outstanding, the Corporation shall not, without first obtaining the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of not less than seventy percent (70.0%) of the outstanding shares of Series F Preferred Stock, voting as a separate class, reduce (whether by merger, recapitalization or otherwise) the original per share price of Series F Preferred Stock below $1.5855 (except for a reduction in such amount that results from a stock dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization which stock dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization shall only require such approval otherwise necessary at law and under the provisions of this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation other than this Section B.8(b)) and reduce the distribution amount that a holder of Series F Preferred Stock is otherwise entitled to under Section B.2 upon a Liquidation Event to an amount below what it was immediately prior to such corporate action. Any such act or transaction entered into without such consent or vote shall be null and void ab initio and of no force or effect.

(c) So long as any shares of Series G Preferred Stock shall be outstanding, the Corporation shall not, without first obtaining the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of not less than seventy percent (70.0%) of the outstanding shares of Series G Preferred Stock, voting as a separate class, reduce (whether by merger, recapitalization or otherwise) the original per share price of Series G Preferred Stock below $1.5855 (except for a reduction in such amount that results from a stock dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization which stock dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization shall only require such approval otherwise necessary at law and under the provisions of this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation other than this Section B.8(c)) and reduce the distribution amount that a holder of Series G Preferred Stock is otherwise entitled to under Section B.2 upon a Liquidation Event to an amount below what it was immediately prior to such corporate action. Any such act or transaction entered into without such consent or vote shall be null and void ab initio and of no force or effect.

9. Certain Matters Requiring Consent of Holders of Series H Preferred Stock.

(a) So long as any shares of Series H Preferred Stock shall be outstanding, the Corporation shall not, without first obtaining the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of not less than eighty percent (80.0%) of the outstanding shares of Series H Preferred Stock, voting as a separate class:

(i) Authorize or effect any merger or consolidation of the Corporation with or into any other corporation or entity or the sale of all of the outstanding capital stock of the Corporation to a single entity or group of related entities in one transaction or a series of transactions;

(ii) Authorize or effect the sale, lease, assignment, transfer or other conveyance of all or substantially all of the assets or equity of the Corporation;

(iii) Authorize or effect the liquidation, recapitalization or reorganization of the Corporation;

(iv) Redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire for value (or pay into or set aside for a sinking fund for such purposes) any shares of the capital stock of the Corporation, including Common Stock, securities convertible, exchangeable or exercisable for Common Stock and Preferred Stock, provided, however, that this restriction shall not apply to the repurchase of shares of Common Stock from employees, officers, directors, consultants or other persons performing services for the Corporation or any subsidiary pursuant to agreements under which the Corporation has the option to repurchase such shares at cost or at cost plus interest at a rate not to exceed nine percent (9.0%) per annum upon the occurrence of certain events, such as the termination of employment;

(v) Increase or decrease the number of directors that may constitute the Board of Directors;

(vi) Increase the number of authorized shares of Preferred Stock;

(vii) Acquire all or substantially all of the properties or assets of any other corporation or entity (except for consideration of less than or equal to $200,000);

(viii) Engage in any new lines of business other than a business substantially similar or related to the Corporation's existing business; and

(ix) Enter into a material transaction with any Affiliate (as that term is defined in Rule 405 of the Securities Act).

(b) So long as any shares of Series H Preferred Stock shall be outstanding, the Corporation shall not, without first obtaining the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of not less than fifty percent (50.0%) of the outstanding shares of Series H Preferred Stock, voting as a separate class:

(i) Reduce (whether by merger, recapitalization or otherwise) the original per share price of Series H Preferred Stock below $1.5855 (except for a reduction in such amount that results from a stock dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization which stock dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization shall only require such approval otherwise necessary at law and under the provisions of this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation other than this Section B.9(b)(i)); and reduce the distribution amount that a holder of Series H Preferred Stock is otherwise entitled to under Section B.2 upon a Liquidation Event to an amount below what it was immediately prior to such corporate action;

(ii) Create, authorize or issue any equity securities of the Corporation ranking senior or pari passu to the Series H Preferred Stock;

(iii) Incur any indebtedness other than the incurrence of indebtedness under the Corporation's revolving credit facility in effect on the Filing Date, refinance any debt owed to HCRP or enter into a royalty financing agreement, revenue or profit-based financing arrangement or a similar structured security or instrument; and

(iv) Amend the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation in a manner that would adversely affect the rights of the holders of the Series H Preferred Stock, or amend, alter, change, restrict, repeal or waive any of the rights, powers, preferences or privileges of the Preferred Stock so as to adversely affect the rights of the holders of the Series H Preferred Stock.

Any such act or transaction entered into without such consent or vote shall be null and void ab initio and of no force or effect.

10. Certain Preemptive Rights. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Investors' Rights Agreement, certain holders of Preferred Stock are each granted a right of first refusal to purchase its pro rata share of any new securities (subject to certain exceptions) that the Corporation may, from time to time, propose to issue or sell. Such right of first refusal shall
